Personal Profile System[®] Graph

Single PPS/RBA Comparison

These graphs display the intensity levels for the role of Outside Sales as compared to Paul's Personal Profile. The Comparison Analysis on the following pages lists the behaviors that show a "good fit," "stretch" or "redirect" potential. Behaviors that are listed as a "good fit" are those behaviors in which the role requires a similar level of behavior as seems to be natural for Paul. Behaviors listed as "stretch" are those behaviors that the role requires more of than seems to be natural for him. The behaviors listed as "redirect" are those that the role requires less of than seems to be natural for him. The listed behaviors describe potential fit rather than actual observed behavior. The Performance Coaching Questions may be helpful in discovering Paul's actual experience in matching his behavior to the role requirements.
